

Tour Buenos Aires & Iguazu Falls – 6 days

Enjoy the perfect combination of South American culture, tango and jungles on this 6-day tour of Argentina. Discover sophisticated Buenos Aires' eclectic neighborhoods before touring Iguazu Falls National Park. Shared by Argentina and Brazil, this UNESCO World Heritage site is a "must-see" during your stay in Argentina.

Day 1 – Buenos Aires

Welcome to Argentina!

Capital of Argentina and described as the Paris of South America, Buenos Aires proudly embraces this title, as well as shows off plenty of its own culture! Explore the traditional European architecture, the cobbled streets lined with rustic outdoor cafes, the local antique and artisanal markets that offer plenty of bargain shopping, and the mouthwatering aroma of prized Argentine beef sizzling on an open "parrilla" (barbeque) in the air. Buenos Aires is home to some excellent local designers and you will certainly find the perfect leather jacket, long leather boots and handbags for all occasions. Though above all, Buenos Aires is known as the home of the tango. Be sure to enjoy a traditional dinner-tango show and explore the colorful San Telmo and Recoleta neighborhoods.

Upon arrival in Buenos Aires you will be met at the airport and have a transfer in private to your hotel.

On your first day in the city you will be contacted by one of our Destination Hosts, who will check with you details of your itinerary, provide you with the printed documentation, and add any information you might need. She/ he will be your local contact while you are traveling with us and will be ready to answer your questions, give you tips about places to go, restaurants to eat and anything else you might be interested in. Not just about Buenos Aires, also about the different places you will visit during your whole itinerary.

You will have the rest of the day to enjoy this vibrant city, leaving you the remainder of the day to explore the historical neighborhoods and enjoy the cafe culture of Buenos Aires.

Please, check our Optional Tours in case you would like to add an activity.

Day 2 – Buenos Aires City Tour & Tango Show

In the morning you will be picked up from your hotel (shared service) to enjoy our City Tour.

Over the course of a half day you will have the chance to visit the historical and political centre of the city: San Telmo with its cobblestone streets, La Boca where Buenos Aires turns colorful and tango is ever present, and the chic and aristocratic Recoleta, where the big palaces remind us that Buenos Aires was once the Paris of the South.

Duration: 3- 4 hours

In the evening you will be picked up from your hotel (shared service) to be driven to one of Buenos Aires' most emblematic cultural highlight's: a Dinner and Tango Show offering a spectacular demonstration of the finest local dancing accompanied by delicious Argentine cuisine and all the malbec you'd like.

At the end of the evening you will be driven back to your hotel.

Total duration (dinner + show): 4 hours (aprox)

Meals included: Breakfast, dinner (drinks included also)

Day 3 – Buenos Aires / Puerto Iguazu

At appropriate time, you will have a private transfer to the domestic airport to take your flight to Puerto Iguazu.

Welcome to Iguazú!

On arrival in Iguazú, you be driven to your hotel (shared service)

The little and relaxing town is the gate to visit the impressive Iguazu falls, (which have been recently declared as one of the New Seven Natural Wonders!), making them a must see destination for any traveler visiting Argentina

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 4 – Iguazu National Park: Argentine Side

This day you are visiting a National Reserve. Please remember that National Park Fees are not included. Check at the end of your itinerary the corresponding fee, to be paid locally in national currency.

After breakfast you will depart on a full day tour (shared service) to the Argentine side of the Iguazu falls where you will have intimate views of this unforgettable section of the Iguazu River. A guide will show you the hidden gems of this unique National Park and will take you off the beaten path to show you the best views.

Lower and upper walkways permit up close and personal experiences with this magnificent spectacle of nature. Trails through the 210 square mile reserve provide visitors with various views of the falls, especially the largest one, Devil's Throat. The ecological train ride is included in the tour. Return to the hotel in the late afternoon.

Note that in the park there are different excursions you can take for an additional cost. On the “Gran Aventura” you can sail the river and get closer the falls (Please be aware- on the boat trip there is a 100% chance that you will get wet...the falls provide a refreshing “natural shower”. Be sure to take some extra clothes if you want to do this excursion.)

This day will be a real adventure, full of thrills and spills, and is an absolute must for the adventurer at heart.

Duration: 6/8 hours

Meals included: Breakfast

Day 5 – Iguazu National Park: Brazilian Side / Buenos Aires

This day you are visiting a National Reserve. Please remember that National Park Fees are not included. Check at the end of your itinerary the corresponding fee, to be paid locally in national currency.

After breakfast, enjoy half day excursion (shared service) to the Brazilian side of the Iguazu falls where you will enjoy vast panoramic views of the falls allowing you to take them in their entirety.

“Brazil requires that most tourists have a visa to visit the Brazilian side of Iguazu Falls. Please check with the Brazilian Consulate to ensure that you have the appropriate visa before traveling or you will not be allowed to enter Brazil. For example- US citizens, Canadians & Australians (as well as other nationalities) need a visa to visit the Brazilian side of Iguazu Falls.”

At the appropriate time in the afternoon you will have a transfer (shared service) to the airport for your flight to Buenos Aires.

Upon arrival to Buenos Aires, you will have a private transfer to your hotel.

Meals included: breakfast

Day 6 – Buenos Aires

Day at leisure to explore the cobbled tree lined streets of Palermo Soho in search of one of a kind Porteño fashion, to sit in cafe and enjoy perfectly aged glass of malbec (famous wine of Argentina), Or perhaps to sip yerba out of your newly purchased mate gourd while people watching in one of the parks that makes up the Palermo Bosques.

At the appropriate time you will have a private transfer to the international airport for your flight back home.
